

CDC Perinatal HIV Prevention & Surveillance Programs

Dr. Steve Nesheim
Team Leader, Mother-Child
Transmission Team

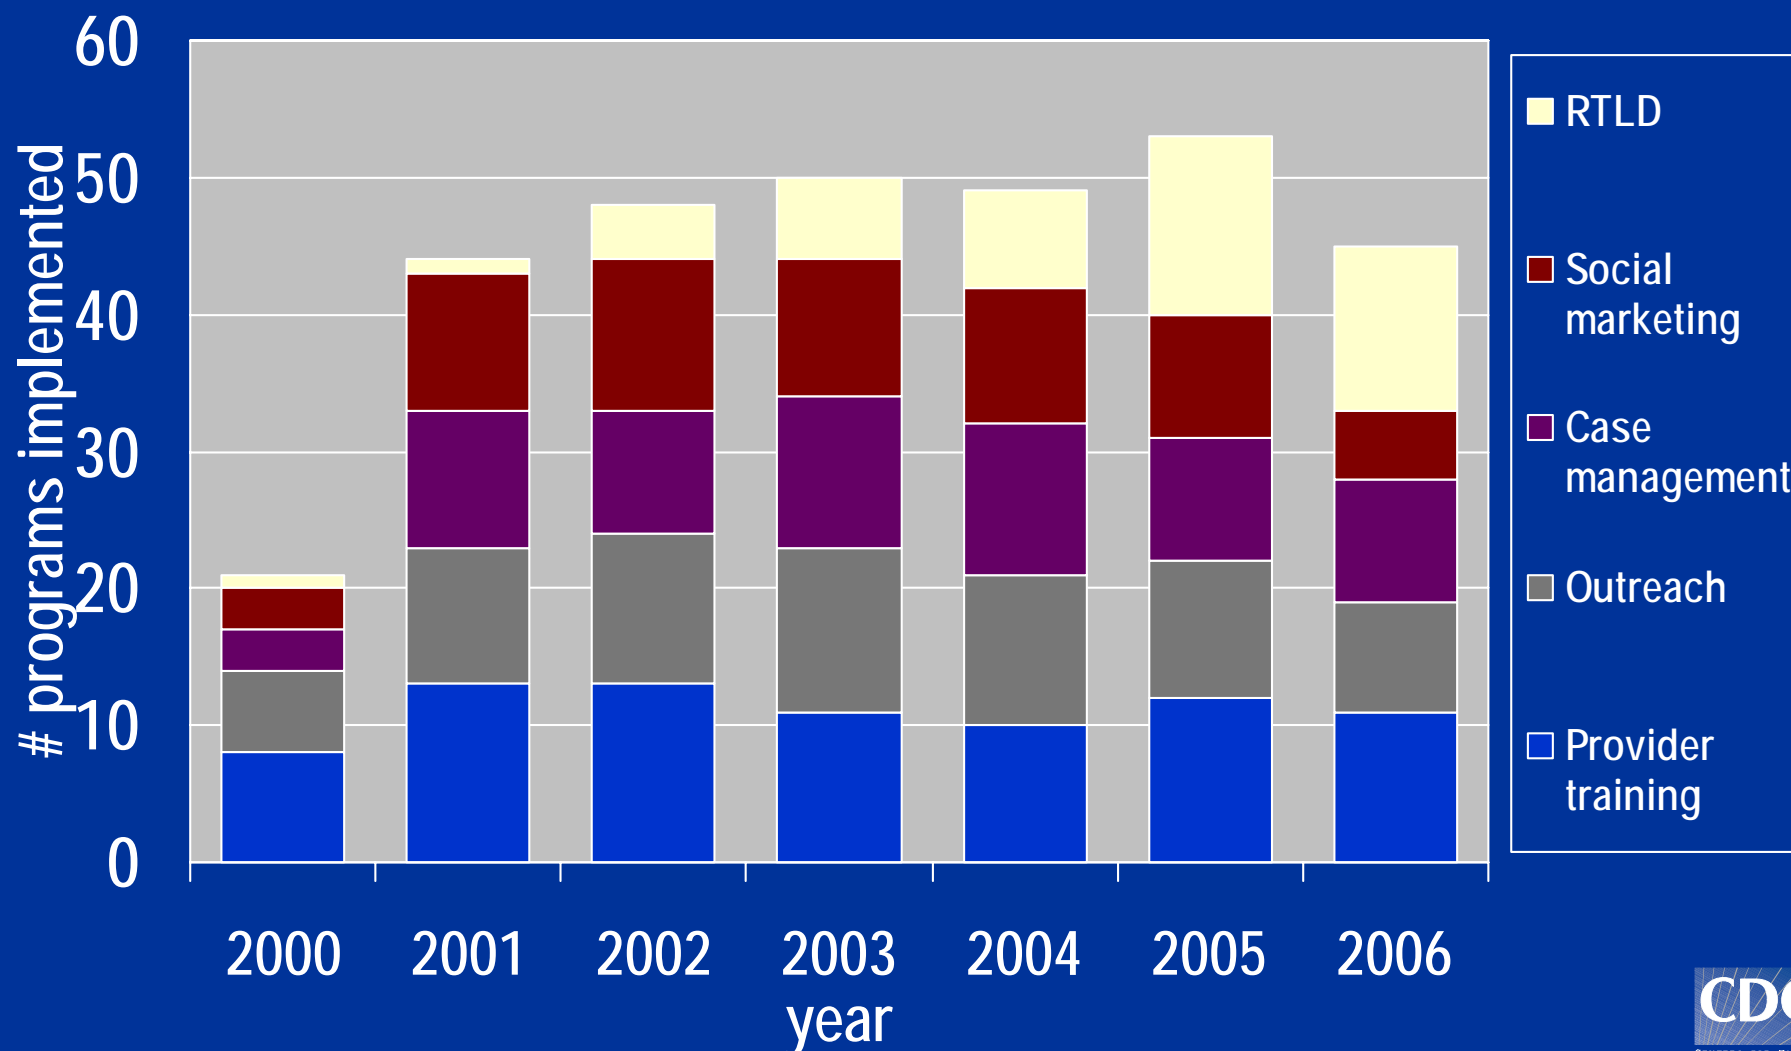

Perinatal HIV Prevention Programs

Perinatal HIV Prevention Programs

State and local health departments

Number and type of programs implemented by perinatal prevention grantees, 2000—2006

Perinatal HIV Prevention Programs

National organizations and efforts

Working with States, Cities, and Institutions

■ AMCHP:

- ◆ Perinatal HIV Action Learning Labs (2 rounds with 12 states)
- ◆ Survey of State MCH Directors

■ CityMatCH:

- ◆ Perinatal HIV Urban Learning Network
- ◆ Profiles of Perinatal HIV Prevention

■ HRET:

- ◆ Summary of state laws regarding HIV testing
- ◆ Resource binders for all delivering hospitals
- ◆ Charts comparing FDA-approved HIV tests

Working with Providers

■ ACOG:

- ◆ “Important News for Pregnant Women” (tear pad) in 5 languages
- ◆ HIV Fact Sheet-for Providers (laminated card)
- ◆ Patient Pamphlets

■ NCCC:

- ◆ National 24/7 perinatal HIV hotline for providers

■ FXBC:

- ◆ Regional Workshops for Hospitals

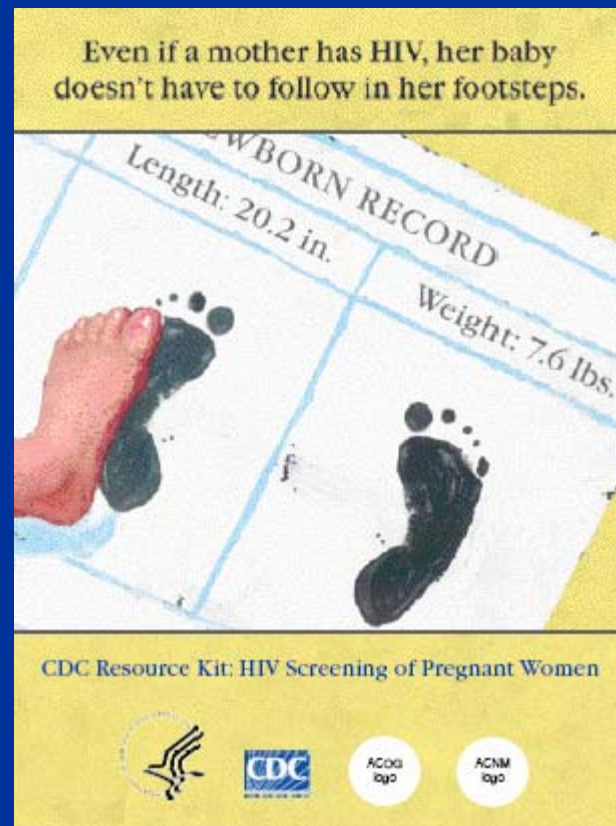

ONE
TEST
TWO
LIVES

Prenatal HIV screening
benefits mom and baby.

One Test. Two Lives.

2007

- Campaign promoting CDC testing recommendations to prenatal providers & patients
- Approved by HHS—February
- Website release—April:
www.cdc.gov/1test2lives
- AJOG May issue—program ad
- ACOG & ACNM Meetings
- HRET medical center distribution
- First NCHHSTP national campaign for providers

FIMR/HIV Pilot Project

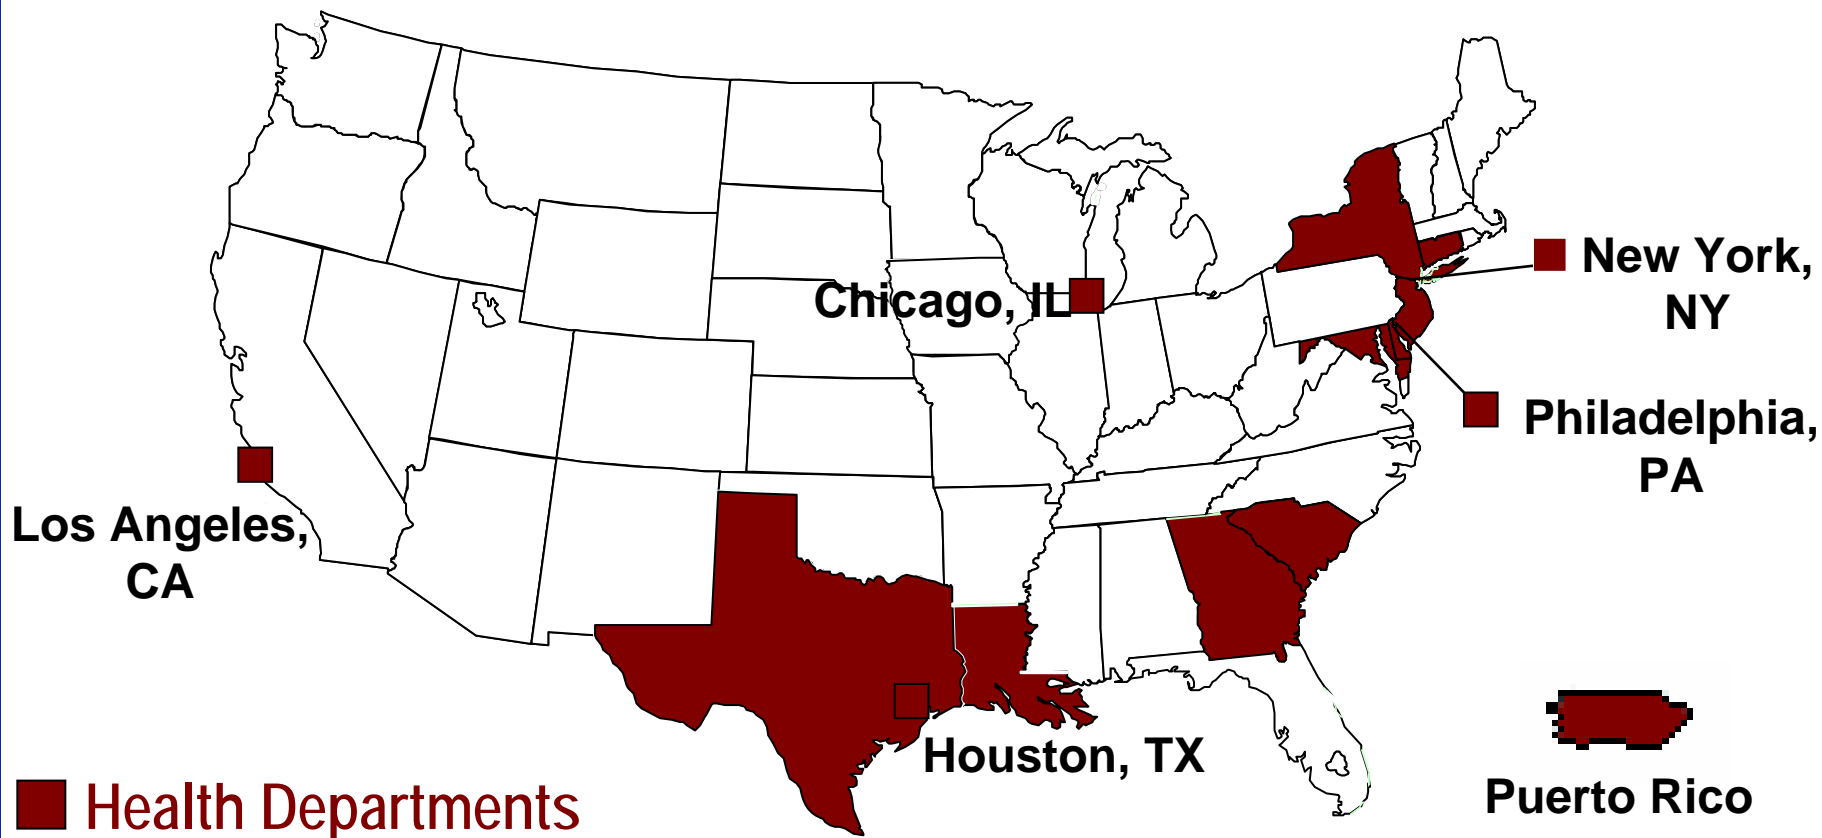

- Community-based, CQI model
 - ◆ Assess/address local systems issues
 - ◆ Modeled after the Fetal & Infant Mortality Review
- 3 year pilot project
 - ◆ Investigate perinatal HIV exposures as sentinel events
- Medical record abstraction, interview, case review team, community action team
- Tools developed, cases being enrolled in:
 - ◆ Baton Rouge, LA
 - ◆ Detroit, MI
 - ◆ Jacksonville, FL
- Methodology available to PPB grantees in 2008

Perinatal HIV Surveillance Programs

Enhanced Perinatal Surveillance

Enhanced Perinatal Surveillance (EPS)

Enhanced Perinatal Surveillance (EPS)

- Overall goals:
 - ◆ Monitor implementation of USPHS recommendations on testing pregnant women, ZDV use, trends in HIV among children
 - ◆ Establish surveillance system to respond to Ryan White data requests
 - ◆ Assist in evaluating perinatal prevention efforts
- Established in 1999
 - ◆ Data collected on mother-infant pairs
 - ◆ Multiple data sources
- 15 sites funded for 2006-2008